87 QUAI DE PALUDATE, BORDEAUX

Dear Customer,

Just over forty years ago, an idea began to form in my mind. It was an idea that would change my life and that of my family forever. That idea was Millesima: a company that has revolutionised the way we buy, sell and enjoy wine.

It was daring, perhaps even a little crazy, but the boldest ideas are often the ones that result in the greatest successes.

That's how Millesima came into being in 1983, from a dream born out of the desire to create a company of which I'd like to be a customer, and founded on a number of strongly held values that have remained unchanged.

We specialise in exclusive and deliverable grands crus classés, purchased exclusively from their producers. As the price of these products is high, the quality must be indisputable, and to ensure this, we taste each wine before offering it. What's more, our large stock is made up not of wines we haven't been able to sell, but of wines we want to keep. Several vintages and different bottles for each château are available, stored in optimal conditions, with humidity and temperature carefully monitored.

With our Action-Reaction approach, the challenges we face are always transformed into opportunities. The strikes of the 1980s led us to internationalise our customer base. We adapted, becoming German in Germany, English in England and Italian in Italy. The ordeal of the 1991 frost, which destroyed 75 per cent of the Bordeaux harvest, led us to broaden our range of wines: we ventured beyond Bordeaux to include wines from Burgundy, Champagne and the Rhône Valley, as well as Italian, Spanish and Californian wines. Every challenge has been an opportunity to grow, and every victory has affirmed our passion and determination.

However, the main key to our success has always been to ensure that our customers are central to all our decisions. Every change we consider is assessed through your eyes: if I were a customer, would I approve this change? This is what has guided our journey and shaped Millesima as you know it today.

Today, as we celebrate our 40th anniversary, I'm filled with gratitude. I'm grateful for your loyalty and that we've been able to contribute, in our own way, to the history of wine.

Patrick Bernard

Champagne

Good Champagne has to be one of the world's finest wines. Served cool (but not icy cold!) it expresses all its finesse, freshness, elegance and complexity, coming from grapes grown on steep slopes in very distinctive terroirs, in a relatively harsh climate for viticulture. Add to this Champagne's major grapes, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier, the typicity of each Cru and the skill of the winemakers and you have a superb range of styles and flavours that has made Champagne's reputation for centuries.

Champagne Rosé

The current craze for rosé champagne almost makes you forget all the history behind the product. In the early days, all Champagne wines were tinted pink - vins gris, clairet, œil de perdrix or rougelets - and Barbe-Nicole Clicquot, ever the visionary, proposed a rosé champagne as early as 1804.

Champagne is the only appellation in France authorised to use this process. Rosé champagnes have stronger flavours than white champagnes.

Bordeaux

A globally-recognized symbol of viticulture, Bordeaux boasts a winemaking history that goes back to ancient times. Surrounding the city of Bordeaux (nicknamed "La Belle Endormie" or "Sleeping Beauty") is the largest AOC wine region in the world. Bordeaux's 60 appellations form a dazzling mosaic of terroirs with many different colors and unique expressions represented, yet all in harmony with Bordeaux's core identity, defined by the art of blending, ageing and vintage variation.

Premiers Crus Classés

The Left Bank Growths (Médoc, Graves and Sauternes) were listed in the famous 1855 classification, whereas those on the Right Bank, in Saint-Emilion, undergo a new classification every decade. Not only do the First Growths symbolize Bordeaux, they are an important part of France's reputation and renown around the world. The mere mention of their names can bring joy to ardent collectors and wine lovers alike!

The Premiers Crus Classés are available in restricted quantity.

Sauternes & Barsac

The sweet white wines of Sauternes are made some 50 or so kilometres upstream from Bordeaux, between the left bank of the Garonne River and the Landes Forest. This region includes several villages, from the world-famous Sauternes itself to lesser known communes such as Barsac, Bommes, Fargues and Preignac. Made from the classic white Bordeaux grape varieties (Semillon, Sauvignon and Muscadelle), these complex, rich, sweet wines owe their distinctive quality to late ripening and the presence of Botrytis Cinerea, also known as Noble Rot.

Irresistible at 40

On the eve of its 40th anniversary, Millesima has more than one signature move to attract lovers of fine wines. Imagine a labyrinth of two and half million bottles, more than 13,000 different wines and 12,500 large formats – a breathtaking sight!

Whether it's the charm of Bordeaux, the sparkle of Champagne, the elegance of Burgundy or wonders from the world's finest winemakers, each bottle is chosen with care and acquired directly from the wine estate.

The journey of these liquid treasures has only two stages: the winemaker's cellar and our historic wine warehouse, which dates from 1840 and is located in the heart of Bordeaux.

If you're in search of the exceptional, let Millesima, with its 40 years of expertise, be your privileged guide in the world of wine.

Imperial Library

In the heart of our two hundred year old cellars, great wines mature in dramatic surroundings. The Imperial Library hosts a wholly unique collection of magnificent oversized bottles, such as magnums, double-magnums, jeroboams, imperiales, salmanazars, balthazars, nebuchadnezzars and melchiors.

*Millesima makes the first selection,
the customer repurchases it.*

*We want to be discoverers and influencers.
Our guarantee: we taste each wine.*

40 years of thirsting after new discoveries

For 40 years, our passion for wine and our curiosity have led us to discover new wineries. Our explorers – discerning connoisseurs – are engaged in a constant quest to seek out new wines and spirits to add to our range.

Because, although our roots are in Bordeaux, our offer has extended, since 1995, to include many French and international regions.

Our promise: each wine is tasted before its selection.

We like to imagine ourselves as your companions in this wine adventure, and we seek to offer you the rarest and finest labels from France and around the world.

Burgundy

Burgundy is without a doubt one of the most celebrated viticultural regions in France, and indeed in the entire world. Here, Pinot Noir and Chardonnay achieve their most complex and finest expressions.

We test, we move forward, we question.

40 years old and still going strong

For four decades, Millesima has embodied the spirit of innovation and entrepreneurship in the wine world. We have pioneered direct marketing and the use of the internet since 1997 for the sale of great classified wines, adding a personal touch with customised advice.

Our 'test and learn' mantra ensures we continue to be groundbreaking and ready to adopt new technologies.

Today, our shop window is online. Our expert digital marketing teams work tirelessly to ensure that your online shopping experience is as user-friendly as possible.

Meanwhile, our Social Media team, always on the lookout for new trends, shares our passion for wine worldwide, reaching more than 12 million people each year with its publications.

Millesima is constantly evolving. After 40 years, we're still pioneering, still seeking new experiences.

Rhone Valley

The typicity of wines from the Rhone Valley comes from the unique mix of soils, grape varieties, and the Mediterranean climate. 23 grape varieties are permitted in their production. The main varietals used are Syrah (predominant in the Northern Rhone) and Grenache (widely planted in the Southern Rhone), along with Mourvedre, Cinsault, and Carignan for red wine. Viognier and Marsanne dominate the white wines. Of course, whatever the varietal, Rhone wines always impress with their diversity and quality.

A taste for the finer things in life for

40 years

We have spent 40 years promoting the wines of the estates we work with. We seek to offer a stylised showcase for these exceptional products and to demonstrate our marked taste for excellence, both in the selection of wines we offer and in the high-quality content we produce.

By using a variety of communication channels effectively, we have established ourselves as a true 'content-creator'. Our in-house communications agency, which is equipped with a photo studio and a creative studio, ensures we retain perfect control of our image and that of the wine estates we represent.

Our content department produces thousands of texts each year, translated into several languages, which faithfully reflect the identity of wine estates and châteaux to clients while improving their visibility. The video media department completes this palette by offering high-quality visual content.

Much more than simply an intermediary, Millesima is a true ambassador of refinement and creativity in the world of wine.

We need to be dedicated to great wines.

Loire

The vineyards of the Loire valley, the third largest French winegrowing region, are a study in balance: between North and South, suavity and freshness, tradition and modernity. Combined with a temperate climate and sumptuous terroirs, the wines of this region are lively and beautiful.

The Loire is known for its single varietal wines: Melon de Bourgogne in the Nantes region, Chenin Blanc, Cabernet Franc and Gamay in Anjou, Saumur, and Touraine, and Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Noir in the Centre region.

Every day for 40 years, we've cultivated a passion for wine that is expressed in our in-house tastings, which are essential to our business. Each wine we offer is tasted by our specialist teams, because we're convinced that we can only present what we know intimately.

To strengthen our relationship and share our enthusiasm with you, we began tasting events in 1988. These valuable events give us the chance to go beyond a simple business transaction and establish genuine wine-based connections both with our partnering wineries and with you.

As founder Patrick Bernard puts it so well: 'To do this job, you have to truly love people and the product.' And it's in this spirit that we continue to taste every day, to share our passion for wine and to create memorable moments, because, let's not forget, wine is all about sharing.

40 years of tastings

To do this job, you have to truly love people and the product.

DOMAINE MARCEL DEISS

Alsace

Authenticity and typicity are the hallmarks of the best Alsace wines. Produced on exceptional terroirs, these wines are identified by grape variety, the best of which are Riesling, Muscat, Gewurztraminer and Pinot Gris.

Alsace's finest white wines offer a real voyage of discovery for the palate:

- The late harvest or "vendanges tardives" wines, made with grapes that have reached the stage of over ripeness or "surmaturité",

- The "Sélections de Grains Nobles", as their name suggests, are made from grapes that are harvested by hand, berry by berry, and which have been attacked by Noble Rot, Botrytis Cinerea.

Around the world in 40 years

We've been sailing the seas of the wine world for 40 years, charting a course marked by audacity, the bow always pointed in the direction of excellence. Our international journey began in 1992 with our first catalogue in German, and has expanded across Europe and to the United States, Hong Kong and Singapore. We reached a memorable milestone in our odyssey with the opening of a store in New York.

Our logistics team – a true modern-day crew, – expertly manages a stock of 2.5 million bottles stored in optimal conditions as well as 46,000 deliveries – or 1.3 million bottles – a year.

Continue to explore the fascinating world of fine wines with us, because the journey is as important as the destination.

Germany Austria Switzerland

With vineyards dating back more than 2,000 years, Germany and Austria are some of the world's oldest wine-producing countries. They are the birthplaces of fine white wines, whose character is defined by combinations of terroir, grape varietal, climate and technique that do not exist anywhere else. These complex wines are steeped in elegance, finesse and minerality with an enormous potential for cellaring. Each year, they become more prominent in the most celebrated restaurants and the collections of wine connoisseurs around the world.

At the heart of Europe, the canton of Valais in Switzerland shines with the beauty of its landscapes. Between mountains, lakes, rivers and streams, some of the grape varieties typical of the country express all the power of their character, while others subtly reveal the essence of their terroir. These sublime lands produce wines of exceptional quality. But, like a hidden treasure, these nuggets remain mainly on Swiss soil and rarely cross the border.

Italy

Italy, which ranks just before France in terms of overall wine production, is one of the rare countries where vineyards are equally spread from North to South. A great variety of soils gives birth to unique local varietals, including Nebbiolo and Sangiovese...

From Piedmont to Tuscany, through Lombardy and the Veneto, one finds wines of rare singularity across Italy.

Piedmont

Surrounded by the Alps and the Apennines, Piedmont produces great red wines from local grape varietals and excellent terroirs. One of the finest grape varieties, Nebbiolo, provides the unique characteristics for two of the region's most celebrated wines, Barbaresco and Barolo.

Tuscany

Since Antiquity, Tuscany has been a land of wine-growing tradition. Its gentle undulating hills and a Mediterranean climate are the ideal ingredients for producing wine of quality. Its red wines enjoy a worldwide fame, with iconic names from Bolgheri, Brunello di Montalcino and Chianti Classico.

Trentino Alto Adige

Located in the far north of Italy and the south of Austria, the Trentino Alto Adige region is defined by magnificent mountainous landscapes. At the crossroads of German and Italian traditions, this formerly Austrian area was attached to Italy in 1919, following the First World War.

Trentino Alto Adige has come to the forefront of the international scene over the last two decades thanks to the production of its wines, and in particular its white wines, which represent two thirds of the region's production. Renowned producers are working to reveal the astonishing diversity of this region. A fascinating region to discover along a wine route rich in colours and flavours.

Southern Italy

An ancient wine region that once produced the best wines of the Roman Empire, southern Italy boasts a rich Greek and Roman legacy, which has significantly shaped the viticulture we see here today. This region is now returning to the forefront of the international scene with a wide and very unique range of wines. Situated between the mountains and the sea, the vineyards of southern Italy are home to an impressive myriad of indigenous grape varieties dating back to antiquity. With its diversity of soils, altitudes, exposures, grape varieties and cultivation methods, southern Italy today produces some of the most famous wines of the country. The region's meteoric rise in quality has catapulted many of its references to the peak of viticulture. These wines currently enjoy a glowing reputation around the world.

Amarone della Valpolicella Classico

Amarone della Valpolicella is an iconic Italian wine. Its unique production method has been passed down through centuries, and it is one of the most prestigious red wines of the Veneto. The grapes are harvested late in the season, then air-dried on straw mats for two to three months before being vinified to full dryness, in order to achieve the optimal concentration without heaviness. Amarone is a powerful, velvety and complex wine with a powerful aromatic intensity and an excellent ageing potential.

40 years inspired by you

The vision of founder Patrick Bernard has been our driving force for 40 years.

He wanted to create a business that he would enjoy being a customer of, that treated every customer like a friend.

The need to ensure that the customer remains at the centre of our concerns springs from this source. At Millesima, we never seek to solve a problem without taking customer satisfaction into account. This aspiration has given rise to our unwavering commitment to offering personalised service and advice. It's what guides us in our constant efforts to put you at the heart of everything we do.

With a loyal customer base of more than 150,000 people spread across 120 countries, we look forward to pursuing this adventure with you and continuing to offer you memorable wines to enjoy in the future.

We seek to build customer loyalty by giving you the best possible advice.

We stand out for the quality of our advice.

Portugal

Portugal is a country inextricably linked with wine, both by its history and by the diversity of its grape varieties and wines, starting with the portos, these fortified wines with a potential for ageing capable of lasting a century.

If port wines are in the collective imagination the representation of Portugal's wine industry, other wines are also worthy of interest. The crisp white wines Vinho Verde or the red wines of the Douro Valley with their Bordeaux accents are other representatives of the thousand-year-old know-how of a country with a wine-making tradition to be rediscovered.

Douro

Although the history of Douro wines dates back to time immemorial, it was only very recently, in 1982, that the Douro DOC appellation was established. Fernando Nicolau de Almada sketched out the beginnings of the first Douro DOC while visiting the Bordeaux region. Fascinated by the precision winemaking of the great wines of Bordeaux, he returned to Portugal with a new dream: to produce fine still red wines from the typical Portuguese varieties. Product of a combination of perfectly sloping soils, ancient cultural know-how, indigenous grape varieties and a Bordeaux-style approach to winemaking, Douro red wines are powerful and straightforward, appealing to Bordeaux red wine lovers.

Wines of the world

Did you know that there are 170-year-old grapevines in Australia that are still producing wine? Or that way back in 1976, a Chardonnay from California defeated the best French white wines at a blind taste test in Paris?

Today, all wine enthusiasts know that good wine has no boundaries and that the Old Continent does not have a monopoly on great bottles. It all goes down to sensibilities, preferences, curiosity and passion because there is an infinite range of possible experiences in the world of wine. Countries like Australia, the United States, Argentina and Chile have produced some of the most prized vintages in the world and offer thrilling opportunities to wine aficionados in search of adventure and discovery.

as a family

There's a family feel to Millesima

At 40 years old, Millesima remains rooted in the Bernard Group, a family company that has demonstrated an unwavering commitment to the world of wines and spirits for four generations. This history is infused with the values of respect, integrity and resilience that bind generations together and fuel our determination. Our family ties, which have become as rare as they are precious, are stronger than mere monetary interest; they are a guarantee of conscientiousness and competence that provide us with a stable base and a vision of the future.

This disposition permeates Millesima, creating a winning team synergy. Committed and involved, each member cherishes a strong sense of belonging to what we now call 'the Millesima family'.

Our stores in New York, Saint-Tropez and Cap Ferret physically embody this approach.

When you walk through the door of one of these stores, you're not merely a customer: you're taking a step into our history, you're joining a family that shares your passion for wine.

On receipt of the wines, please check the order

Before signing the delivery slip, check that you have the right number of cases, that they are in good condition, and that there is not any breakage or bottles missing. If there are any discrepancies, please write "Damaged" on the carriers delivery slip, beneath your signature, and call our team of experts as soon as possible. We will take care of everything.

Dear Customer,

When I was put in charge of Millesima, taking over from my father, one of the first things I wanted to do was spend a day with him in places that were important to us.

The day began in the Imperial Library of Millesima, amidst the 12,000 large formats it houses. It's a place that strongly symbolises the passion for wine that my father passed on to me. My Millesima adventure thus began with learning how to taste and get to know the products – essential conditions for forging links with the estates – making choices about the variety of products and selections.

That morning we spent three hours talking about Millesima since its creation. I asked him all sorts of questions, including some crazy ones. I have very fond memories of that time, which strengthened my convictions about the path we need to follow to continue to develop Millesima: we must never hesitate to innovate and, above all, we must keep our customers at the heart of our concerns.

I remember this question I asked my father, and his answer, which sums it all up for me:

- Dad, is there anything you let me do that you didn't believe in?

To be honest, I was expecting him to reply no. But that wasn't the case.

- Yes, once in 2008, he said, when you wanted to create content for websites (videos, photos, descriptions, etc.).

I asked him why he'd let me go ahead, and I'll always remember his answer:

- Because you innovated without jeopardising Millesima's DNA or its continued existence.

This question about Millesima's DNA is one that I'm constantly asking myself. When, in 2023, we decided with the teams to integrate spirits into our range, we asked ourselves two questions: would this compromise the Millesima's DNA? And are we meeting our customers' needs?

Here, we're at an important stage in our history, with this 40th anniversary representing the age of both maturity and full vitality. Together with our teams, we're ready to take on the challenges ahead and improve even further to ensure that Millesima's customer service is irreproachable.

To this end, this year we have strengthened our logistical and commercial efficiency by entrusting these services to two talented young women. From 2024 onwards, we will be working on improving our services and product selection.

The fact that we're able to move forward in this way, with the same determination and the same enthusiasm, is down to you, our customers, and I would like to thank you warmly for that.

Fabrice Bernard

40 years and counting

Being a pioneer is demanding.

In the world of Millesima, audacity and innovation are keys that open the doors to some beautiful stories. Pioneers in the art of selling great wines, we're constantly introducing new ideas, without ever abandoning our original passion for wine and the beauty of craftsmanship.

Imagine a journey of the senses, full of promises of wonder and memorable moments. Our customers, passionate epicureans, are the ones who really drive this adventure; they share our love and our fascination for the treasures of the vine.

Millesima sees its future in a flow of groundbreaking ideas and daring projects. Being a pioneer is demanding, but it's also an exhilarating adventure.

Ready to go beyond the boundaries of taste? Embark on an adventure where innovation turns tradition on its head!
