EDITORIAL

Roses are reborn every spring.

Juan Ramón Jiménez

Dear customer,

We are delighted to share the exciting news of our renaissance in the United States with you, with the opening of our new wine cellar in New York. Located at 1257 2nd Avenue, in the heart of the Upper East Side, this boutique is more than just a store... but you will discover all about it in the coming pages.

With this new spring edition, we also invite you to savour the vibrant character of the 2023 rosé vintage, which, despite challenging weather conditions that have tested the resilience of both winegrowers and vines, reveals a remarkable expression of our terroirs, with notes of delicate fruit and a lingering freshness.

You will also find a range of wines at special prices to accompany your festive occasions and celebrations. New vintages, new formats, new food inspirations and wine pairings: everything is gathered in this spring issue to ensure that your tables are the centrepiece of your joyous occasions.

We are delighted to wish you a sparkling spring. We hope that our selections will awaken your tastebuds and enrich your special occasions.

Enjoy your tastings and have a wonderful spring,

Fabrice Bernard

ROSÉS, THE NEW 2023 VINTAGE

The 2023 vintage was a resilient one, offering both challenges and unique opportunities. The winemakers were able to take advantage of the unique conditions of the year to concentrate the intense aromas of red fruit, citrus and flowers in their wines, while at the same time preserving the invigorating acidity that is the signature of great rosés.

The 2023 rosés are currently being released and not all references are available yet. Visit the Millesima website to keep up to date with new releases!

New York City

MILLESIMA HAS OPENED ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL WINE STORES IN MANHATTAN

We are pleased to announce that Millesima USA has just opened a new boutique in New York! This is an important milestone for us and reflects our growth as well as our commitment to excellence in the world of wine. The new boutique is located in the heart of New York, on the Upper East Side, at 1257 2nd Avenue. Much more than just a retail space, we wanted to create a wine haven, as Hortense Bernard points out: "We look forward to welcoming our customers to a unique wine experience in NYC, a premier retail space where customers can not only purchase fine wines and collectibles but also gather to taste and interact directly with producers and wine experts in our beautiful new space."

Designed by the world-renowned creative agency Malherbe, the space symbolises our aspiration to tell the fascinating stories behind every bottle in our range. It features premium wines from around the world, as well as champagnes and spirits, reflecting the richness and diversity of hedonistic beverages worldwide.

Nevertheless, France remains the number one supplier of wine to the United States and, proud of our origins, we give French wines a special place in our store. This boutique is yet another flagship for French wines around the world, a showcase for their excellence.

Our adventure in New York began in 2006, and this achievement underlines our unique position in the selection and distribution of exceptional wines. We would like to thank you for your loyalty and enthusiasm, which are the real driving forces behind our success.

Les Carmes Haut-Brion

THE MOST TYPICAL BORDEAUX CHÂTEAU?

Château Les Carmes Haut-Brion, located in the heart of Bordeaux, just a stone's throw from its campus, offers an oasis of tranquility that combines nature and wine heritage. With 10 hectares of land, 7 of which are planted with vines, this prestigious estate stands out for its harmony between history, viticulture and innovation.

The park was laid out in the second half of the 19th century by the Colin family, who commissioned Louis-Bernard Fischer, a landscape gardener who is also famous for having designed the public garden in Bordeaux. Today, the various species of century-old trees, including bald cypresses, weeping willows, plane trees, chestnut trees, cedars of Lebanon and magnolias, are part of a listed wooded area, preserving the biodiversity and history of the site.

Château Les Carmes Haut-Brion, which is part of this park, remains true to its roots by practising viticulture in perfect symbiosis with its environment, in particular through the use of biodynamic practices. The terroir, made up of gravel and clay, is enhanced by carefully selected grape varieties that are unique on the Left Bank of Bordeaux, with Cabernet Franc accounting for 42%.

This estate is more than a vineyard; it is a living testimony to history and nature in the heart of the city, offering visitors an experience that transcends time, where the architecture of the winery designed by Philippe Starck blends into the historic landscape, symbolising the link between past and future, urban and natural.

Elements Cases

Four years in the making, these limited-edition "Elements" boxes, produced by craftsmen, are inspired by the shape of the cellars and designed by Philippe Starck. Each box comes with information on how it was made, as well as presentation sheets for the different vintages.

Side note

LAURENT-PERRIER, LUCIE PEREYRE DE NONANCOURT

VISION OF THE NEW GENERATION

"As the 4th generation of the family, my role at Laurent-Perrier is to represent Grand Siècle, Laurent-Perrier's Cuvée de Prestige, around the world.

The vintage is synonymous with excellence in Champagne, but my grandfather, Bernard de Nonancourt, believed otherwise. Only blending can do what a great vintage cannot: recreate the perfect year. The expression of the perfect year is that of a fine Champagne wine that has developed deep aromatic intensity and complexity, while managing to preserve its freshness and acidity over time.

The future is built every day at Laurent-Perrier and rests on 2 cornerstones: the quality of the wines in our range and the quality of the tireless people who promote Laurent-Perrier throughout the world.

Our challenge is to improve the quality of our wines, to move ever closer to the top of the range, of which Grand Siècle is the perfect example, while respecting the environment for which the entire industry is fighting."

ONE WINE, ONE RECIPE

CASTELLO DI AMA "SAN LORENZO GRAN SELEZIONE" 2020
UMANI RONCHI "VECCHIE VIGNE" 2021
& OSSOBUCO WITH PEAS

Préparation : 10 minutes Cooking time : 1h40 Serves 4

INGREDIENTS

Veal shanks (4 pieces) 1.4 kg	Salt	Celery 60 g
White wine 60 cl	Butter 50 g	Carrots 60 g
Black pepper	Golden onions 60 g	Extra virgin olive oil 40 g
Cloves	Fresh peas 160 g	Meat stock 250 g

PREPARATION OF THE MEAT STOCK

Wash and peel 1 carrot, 1 celery stalk and 1 onion and place in a large high-sided frying pan with some oil. Flavour with peppercorns and cloves. Add the meat and cover with 3 litres of water. Cook over medium-high heat for about 2 hours, until the stock has reduced by about half. Then add the remaining litre of water and simmer for a further hour. Then, strain the stock through a fine-mesh sieve.

PREPARING THE SAUTÉ

Wash and peel the carrot, onion and celery, then chop finely. In a large frying pan, melt the butter with the olive oil, then add the chopped vegetables and leave to fry over moderate heat for about 10-15 minutes. Take the shanks and cut the membrane around them with kitchen scissors or a knife, this will prevent the meat from "curling" during cooking. Flour both sides of the shanks. Place them in the pan once the sauté is ready. Brown the shanks on both sides. Deglaze them with the white wine and allow it to evaporate.

Season with salt and pepper, then moisten the meat with the stock. Continue cooking over low heat for 1 hour and a half, covering with the lid but leaving a small vent. Halfway through cooking, turn the shanks over.

From time to time, move the pan around, swirling it to prevent the shanks from sticking, and if they dry out too much, add more stock to the mixture. About 10 minutes before the end of cooking time, add the peas. Your shanks are ready, serve them piping hot.

3 WINES, 3 VARIATIONS OF ASPARAGUS

Roasted asparagus

Pascal Jolivet "Les Terres Blanches" 2022
Pouilly-Fumé Sélections Parcelles

Without a doubt, Sauvignon Blanc is the grape variety to pair with asparagus. Its fruity, vegetal and mineral notes, as well as its acidity, are particularly well suited to the Pouilly-Fumé terroirs, which Pascal Jolivet sublimates thanks to his hands-off approach.

Per 12 bottle box €430

Asparagus in Hollandaise sauce

Domaine Marcel Deiss "Langenberg" 2021
Alsace 1er cru

Asparagus goes very well with wines with vibrant acidity and a saline finish. Its umami flavour and slight bitterness, its mellow sweetness so difficult to describe, go beautifully with a great terroir wine as bright as Langenberg 2021 by Marcel Deiss.

Per 6 bottle box €260

Plain asparagus

Weingut Dönnhoff "Riesling Niederhäuser Kamm Kabinett" 2022
VDP Grosse Lage

A more original pairing with asparagus (without vinaigrette!), this Riesling Kabinett produced by the highly reputed Dönnhoff estate comes from volcanic terroirs which give it an overflowing energy. Its liveliness is offset by a cascade of aromas and a juicy, soft palate that is truly delicious.

Per 6 screw-top bottle box €156
